Queen Elizabeth
Our Spring Rose Special — the most beautiful roses in the world! Each an All-America Rose!

THE REGAL COLLECTION: Queen Elizabeth, featured rose, an all time, All-America winner, in a collection honoring Her Majesty and her Royal Family. Golden Showers, unsurpassed in all floricultural history for daffodil yellow, long pointed buds and profuse flowering. Starfire, the luminous, rocket red All-America rose that ushers in the Space Age...

The Royal Family Collection
Adding to the spirit of celebration for England and its Queen, Germain's offers an outstanding rose collection: Chrysler Imperial: 5 inch flowers of deep rich crimson on sturdy stems, hardy, long blooming. Peace, the rose that grows more beautiful after opening yellow buds that turn to white with picotee cerise edges. Garden Party, the 1960 All America rose winner, graceful as a pink tinged white cloud at dawn.

Golden Showers

All that glitters is not gold—it's our magnificent Lammert's creation, Golden Showers—the most spectacular pillar and climbing rose since 1941! Drenched in daffodil-yellow radiance, each bloom opens to 4½" to 5" flower enchantment. A 1957 A.A.R.S. winner that combines the finest in beauty, hardiness and flowering quality. An almost thornless rose with exquisitely shaped buds on gracefully decorative bronze cutting stems. EXTREMELY HARDY, GROWS 8 FEET HIGH THE VERY FIRST YEAR. Gather ye rose buds while ye may and delight in beauty amid brilliant bouquets of Golden Showers!

1957 A.A.R.S. Winner (U. S. Plant Pat. No. 1557) #206 $2.75 each 3 for $7.45

Queen Elizabeth

The most magnificent pink of all time—sovereign of the rose world! What more wonderful way for Americans to join with Queen Elizabeth and the British Empire in the joyous celebration of the birth of an heir this spring! So proudly unique with its subtle blending of carmine rose and dawn pink, the "Queen" created a new class as the world's first A.A.R.S. Grandiflora winner! Long stemmed and lovely—as a single flower of beauty or in clustered blooms—ideal for cutting. Has deep, glossy foliage. A rose truly worthy of paying homage to a Queen!

1955 All America Winner (U. S. Plant Pat. 1259) A Lammert's Creation Each $2.50 3 for $6.75

Chrysler Imperial

Proud and imperious crimson—the ceremonial color of kings from antiquity is captured forever in the secret of the Chrysler Imperial Rose! A treasure of a crimson bloom blending velvety rich oxblood overtones into center folds of glowing garnet. Elegant, tapering buds unfold into dramatic flowers 4½ to 5 inches across. Luxuriant profusion of petals borne on sturdy medium long stems, perfect for cutting. Not even a king's ransom compares to the rich treasure of pleasure found in viewing this glorious red rose unfold!

Ben Hur Rose

in arrogant arena red!

Deep, splendidous red—magnificent as the flush of victory! A true giant among roses, created by Dr. Walter E. Lammerts, world famous Rosarian, encompassing in its vitality and drama all the flamboyant brilliance of the tale of Ben Hur. A grandiflora rose with buds tapering in classic Grecian urn fashion, revealing velvet-textured perfection within each 5" bloom. Glossy leaves surround single flowers or massed clusters on tall graceful stems. The Ben Hur rose—splashing its vivid beauty across a garden—creating splendor truly worthy of its name!

A Lammerts’ Creation
(P.A.F.)
#207

Because the Ben Hur rose is so rare and new, we have only a very limited quantity. Orders therefore, will be filled on a basis of first arrival!

Descanso Pillar Rose

Spectacular rose clusters—giant in dimension, running from deep coral to startled scarlet—standing proudly on single stems! A horticultural phenomena! Not a Hybrid tea, not a Floribunda, not a Grandiflora or a Tree Rose, but a free standing rose that GROWS TO 8 FEET WITHOUT ANY SUPPORT THE VERY FIRST YEAR! Pick a complete bouquet from a single stem! Long lasting as cut flowers, bloom all season long. Exciting scarlets with a yellow shading at base, exquisite in any setting!

ALL-AMERICA ROSE Award Winners

Sarabande

A fabulously exotic floribunda rose winner! Iridescent orange-red out of the Orient—bold, dramatic, demanding the eye in any garden. With exquisitely vivid, yellow stems for a fantasy of color contrast. Sarabande, a semi-double rose with from 12 to 15 petals that blooms early into wonderful orange-red clusters and continues all season. Low growing, compact, ideal for low hedges. Wherever this new All-America winner is planted in your garden becomes the first focus for admiring eyes!

(U. S. Plant Pat. No. 1761)

#116 PEACE $2.50 each
3 for $6.75

Garden Party

A superbly successful cross of the Charlotte Armstrong and Peace—2 famous All-America winners, has produced another all time winner—Garden Party! Creamy pastel ivory at heart, giving way to an Apple blossom pink flush. A huge flower with a long, lovely bud—marvelous in form when fully opened to jewel-like perfection. Has long stems sturdy enough to hold the giant blooms with dark, olive-green foliage. When cut, take their flawless beauty right into your home. Add Garden Party to your treasure trove of roses.

All America winner 1960
(U. S. Plant Pat. No. 1814)

#211 $3.50 each
3 for $9.45

Fire King

A rose alive with a fiery beauty of iridescent vermillion—so brilliant the bloom can be seen a mile off! Magnificent clusters of long lasting blooms, whose perfect form—fully double flowers 2½ to 3½-inch circles attest their prize winning virtues! The plant, like the bloom is upright, vigorous—with unusual dark green leaves, reddish in cast. Unforgettable as a vivid bud, full blown in a vase! A winner! A knockout in anybody’s garden!

Bird of Paradise

Splendidous gift of the tropics! A dramatic, color-splashed exotic—drenched in reds, yellows, blues, oranges. A flower that rivals the brilliant plumage of tropical birds. Sheer magic in your garden and easy to grow, too! Does beautifully outdoors wherever oranges thrive. In colder climates does best as a tub plant. Prefers sunny location, rich soil, plenty of water.

6"-9" tall (1 1/2 yrs.)

#8671

each $1.50

Tiger Flower

A delightful plant in every way with its tiger cup face of spotted chartreuse and hardy growing habits. A bloom to give dashing color to your garden planted in 6" circles (about 6 bulbs). These flowers grow like glads but are harder in a cold climate. They love the sun.

12 bulbs only $1.00
